Rules of Procedure for Shareholders' Meetings

Article 1: Unless otherwise required by laws and regulations and the Articles of Incorporation, the convening of shareholders' meetings and the proceedings of the Company shall be governed by these Rules.

Article 2: The shareholders' meeting shall be held at the Company's location or at a place suitable for the shareholders' meeting; the meeting shall commence no earlier than 9:00 a.m. and no later than 3:00 p.m., and the place and time of the meeting shall be held with due regard to the opinions of the independent directors.

When the Company holds a video shareholders' meeting, the Company shall not be restricted from holding the aforementioned meeting.

Article 3: The Company shall specify in its shareholders' meeting notices the time during which shareholder attendance registrations will be accepted, the place to register for attendance, and other matters for attention.

The registration of shareholders in the preceding paragraph shall be processed at least 30 minutes prior to the commencement of the meeting; the registration desk shall be clearly marked and adequate and appropriate personnel shall be assigned to handle the registration.

The video conference of the shareholders' meeting shall be accepted at the video conference platform of the shareholders' meeting 30 minutes prior to the commencement of the meeting, and the shareholders who have completed the registration shall be deemed to attend the shareholders' meeting in person.

If a shareholders' meeting is held by video conference, shareholders who wish to attend by video should register with the Company two days prior to the shareholders' meeting. If a shareholders' meeting is held by video conference, the Company shall upload the meeting booklet, annual report and other relevant information to the shareholders' meeting video conference platform at least 30 minutes prior to the start of the meeting and continue to disclose them until the end of the meeting.

Article 4: If the shareholders' meeting is convened by the Board of Directors, the Chair of the meeting shall be the Chairperson of the Board of Directors. If the Chairperson of the Board of Directors is absent from office or is unable to exercise his or her duties for any reason, the Vice Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall act as the chair of the meeting; if the Vice Chairperson of the Board of Directors is also absent from office or is unable to exercise his or her duties for any reason, the Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall designate a Director to act as the chair of the meeting. If the Chairperson of the Board of Directors has not appointed a proxy, the Board of Directors shall appoint a proxy from among themselves. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall preside personally at the shareholders' meetings called by the Board of Directors, and at least one representative of a majority of the Board of Directors and at least one member of each functional committee shall be present, and the attendance shall be recorded in the minutes of the shareholders' meetings.

If a meeting is called by a person other than the Board of Directors, the Chairperson of the meeting shall be that person. If there are two or more persons having the convening right, the chair of the meeting shall be elected from among themselves.

The Company shall appoint a lawyer, an accountant or a related person to attend the shareholders' meeting.

Article 5: The entire meeting of shareholders shall be continuously and uninterruptedly recorded and videotaped and shall be kept for at least one year. However, if a lawsuit is filed by a shareholder in accordance with Article 189 of the Company Act, it shall be kept until the end of the lawsuit. If a shareholders' meeting is held by video conference, the entire video conference shall be continuously and uninterruptedly recorded and videotaped, and shall be properly preserved during its retention period.

Article 6: Attendance at shareholders' meetings shall be calculated based on numbers of shares. The number of shares present shall be calculated on the basis of the number of shares reported in the sign-in book or the attendance card and the video conference platform, plus the number of shares for which the voting rights are exercised by written or electronic means.

At the appointed meeting time, the chair of the meeting shall immediately announce the meeting in accordance with the legal procedures and announce the number of non-voting shares and the number of shares present at the same time; provided, however, that if the shareholders representing more than half of the total number of issued shares are not present, the chair of the meeting may announce an adjournment of the meeting for a maximum of two times, and the total time of the adjournment shall not exceed one hour. If, after two adjournments, there is still a shortage of shareholders representing more than one-third of the total number of outstanding shares, a fictitious resolution may be made in accordance with Article 175(1) of the Company Act. If, before the end of the meeting, the number of shares represented by the shareholders present reaches more than half of the total number of outstanding shares, the chairperson may re-submit the fictitious resolution made to the shareholders' meeting for a vote in accordance with Article 174 of the Company Act.

Article 7: If a shareholders' meeting is convened by the Board of Directors, the agenda shall be set by the Board of Directors, and the relevant motions (including temporary motions and amendments to original motions) shall be voted on a case-by-case basis, and the meeting shall proceed in accordance with the scheduled agenda, which cannot be changed without a resolution of the shareholders' meeting.

The provisions of the preceding paragraph apply mutatis mutandis to a shareholders' meeting convened by a party with the power to convene that is not the Board of Directors.

The chair of the meeting shall not adjourn the meeting without a resolution before the agenda of the shareholders' meeting (including the provisional motion) has been concluded. If the chair of a shareholders' meeting violates the rules of procedure and adjourns the meeting, other members of the Board of Directors shall promptly assist the shareholders present in accordance with the legal procedures and elect a chairperson with the consent of a majority of the shareholders present to continue the meeting. No discussion or vote will be taken on a motion that is not a motion. If the chair believes that the discussion for a proposal has reached a level where a vote may be called the chair may make an announcement to end such discussion and call for a vote.

After the meeting is adjourned, the shareholders shall not elect another chair to resume such meeting at the same location or seek an alternative venue.

Article 8: Before the attending shareholder speaks, he/she must fill out a speaker's slip with the shareholder's account number (or attendance card number), the account name and the speech subject, and the chair (or his/her designee) shall determine the order of his/her speech and call out his/her names in order before they are allowed to speak.

A shareholder in attendance who has submitted a speaker's slip but does not actually speak shall be deemed to have not spoken. When the content of the speech does not correspond to the subject given on the speaker's slip, the spoken content shall prevail.

Except with the consent of the chair, each shareholder (including natural and legal persons) shall speak once on the same motion, and each time shall not exceed 2 minutes, provided that the Chairperson may stop a shareholder from speaking if he/she violates the rules or exceeds the scope of the question. When an attending shareholder is speaking, other shareholders may not speak or interrupt unless they have sought and obtained the consent of the chair and the shareholder who has the floor; the chair shall stop any violation.

When a juristic person shareholder appoints two or more representatives to attend a shareholders' meeting, only one of the representatives so appointed may speak on the same proposal. After an attending shareholder has spoken, the chair may respond in person or direct relevant personnel to respond.

Article 9: If a shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference, shareholders participating by video shall be allowed to ask questions by text on the video conference platform after the chair announces the meeting and before the meeting is adjourned, and the number of questions per motion shall not exceed one, and each time shall be limited to 200 words, not subject to Article 8. If the aforesaid question does not violate the regulations or is within the scope of the motion, it is appropriate to disclose the question on the video conference platform of the shareholders' meeting for public information.

Article 10: The voting of the motion shall be calculated based the number of shares. With respect to resolutions of shareholders' meetings, the number of shares held by a shareholder with no voting rights shall not be calculated as part of the total number of issued shares. A shareholder shall not vote at a meeting if he/she has an interest in the matter that would be detrimental to the Company's interests, and shall not exercise his/her voting rights on behalf of another shareholder.

The number of shares for which voting rights may not be exercised under the preceding paragraph shall not be calculated as part of the voting rights represented by attending shareholders.

With the exception of a trust enterprise or a shareholder services agent approved by the competent securities authority, when one person is concurrently appointed as proxy by two or more shareholders, the voting rights represented by that proxy may not exceed three percent of the voting rights represented by the total number of issued shares. If that percentage is exceeded, the voting rights in excess of that percentage shall not be included in the calculation.

Article 11: A shareholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share held, except when the shares are restricted shares or are deemed to be non-voting shares pursuant to Paragraph 2 of Article 179 of the Company Act.

When the Company calls a shareholders' meeting, the Company shall exercise its voting rights by electronic means and in writing. When voting rights are exercised by correspondence or electronic means, the method of exercise shall be specified in the shareholders meeting notice. Shareholders who exercise their voting rights in writing or electronically are considered to be present in person at the shareholders' meeting. However, the extemporary motion and the amendment to the original motion at that shareholders' meeting shall be deemed to be abstained. The expression of intent is governed by Article 177-2 of the Company Act.

Except as otherwise provided under the Company Act and the Company's Articles of Incorporation, a resolution shall be adopted with the approval of more than one-half of the votes of the shareholders present. At the time of a vote, for each proposal, the chair or a person designated by the chair shall first announce the total number of voting rights represented by the attending shareholders, followed by a poll of the shareholders. After the conclusion of the meeting, on the same day it is held, the results for each proposal, based on the numbers of votes for and against and the number of abstentions, shall be entered into the MOPS.

If a shareholder proposes a motion or an amendment or a substitute to an original motion, the chair shall determine the order of voting together with the original motion. When any one among them is passed, the other proposals will then be deemed rejected, and no further voting shall be required.

The chair shall designate the person(s) to monitor and count the votes for the motion, provided that the monitoring personnel shall be the shareholders of the Company.

Vote counting for shareholders meeting proposals or elections shall be conducted in public at the place of the shareholders' meeting. Immediately after vote counting has been completed, the results of the voting, including the statistical tallies of the numbers of votes, shall be announced on site at the meeting, and a record made of the vote.

Article 12: When the Company convenes a shareholders' meeting by video conference, the shareholders participating by video shall vote on each motion and election motion through the video conference platform after the chairperson announces the opening of the meeting, and shall complete the voting before the chairperson announces the closing of the voting, and any delay shall be deemed as abstention. If the shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference, the chairperson shall announce the close of the voting and announce the voting and election results for a one-time vote count.

When the Company convenes a video-assisted shareholders' meeting, shareholders who have registered to attend the shareholders' meeting by video in accordance with Article 3 and wish to attend the physical shareholders' meeting in person shall deregister in the same manner as they registered two days prior to the shareholders' meeting; if they deregister after that time, they may attend the shareholders' meeting by video only.

Those who exercise their voting rights by written or electronic means without revoking their intention and participate in the shareholders' meeting by video means may not exercise their voting rights on the original motion or propose amendments to the original motion or exercise their voting rights on the amendments to the original motion, except for extemporary motions.

Article 13: In the event of an election of directors at the shareholders' meeting, the election results shall be announced on the spot, including the list of elected directors and the number of their election rights, as well as the list of unsuccessful directors and the number of election rights they received.

The election ballot for the preceding election shall be kept in a safe place and preserved for at least one year.

However, if a lawsuit is filed by a shareholder in accordance with Article 189 of the Company Act, it shall be kept until the end of the lawsuit.

Article 14: Matters relating to the resolutions of a shareholders' meeting shall be recorded in the meeting minutes. The meeting minutes shall be signed or sealed by the chair of the meeting and a copy distributed to each shareholder within 20 days after the conclusion of the meeting. The production and distribution of the meeting minutes shall be done electronically, and the distribution of the minutes shall be done by means of announcements entered into the Market Observation Post System and shall be retained permanently for the duration of the Company's existence. If a shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference, the minutes of the meeting shall include, in addition to the matters required to be recorded in the preceding paragraph, the starting and ending time of the shareholders' meeting, the manner in which the meeting is convened, the names of the chairperson and the minutes of the meeting, and the manner and circumstances under which the video conference platform or video participation may be obstructed due to natural disasters, events or other force majeure circumstances.

In addition to the aforementioned provisions, the Company shall convene a video shareholders' meeting and shall include in the minutes of the meeting alternative measures for shareholders who have difficulties in participating in the shareholders' meeting by means of video.

Article 15: The number of shares solicited by the requester, the number of shares represented by proxy, and the number of shares attended by shareholders in writing or electronically shall be clearly disclosed in the shareholders' meeting venue on the date of the shareholders' meeting in a statistical form prepared in accordance with the prescribed format; if the shareholders' meeting is held by video conference, the Company shall upload the aforementioned information to the video conference platform of the shareholders' meeting at least 30 minutes before the start of the meeting and continue to disclose it until the end of the meeting.

When the Company convenes a video conference for shareholders, the total number of shares of shareholders present shall be disclosed on the video meeting platform when the meeting is announced. The same applies if the total number of shares and voting rights of shareholders present are counted at the meeting.

Article 16: Staff at the shareholders' meetings shall wear ID badges or arm badges. The chair may direct the patrol personnel to assist in maintaining order in the meeting for the conduct of business, and the patrol personnel shall wear identification cards or armbands. Shareholders and non-shareholders at the meeting are subject to the chair's direction regarding the maintenance of order and the conduct of business. Any person who disrupts the conduct of the shareholders' meeting and does not comply with the request, shall be asked by the chair or the patrol personnel to leave the meeting.

Article 17: When a meeting is in progress, the chair may announce a break based on time considerations. If a force majeure event occurs, the chair may rule the meeting temporarily suspended and announce a time when, in view of the circumstances, the meeting will be resumed.

Article 18: If a shareholders' meeting is held by video conference, the Company shall disclose the voting results of each motion and election results on the video conference platform of the shareholders' meeting immediately after the close of voting in accordance with the regulations, and shall continue to disclose the results for at least 15 minutes after the meeting is adjourned by the chairperson.

When the Company holds a video shareholders' meeting, the chair and the recorder shall be present at the same location, and the chair shall announce the address of such place at the time of the meeting.

Article 19: If a shareholders' meeting is held by video conference, the Company shall provide a simple connection test for shareholders before the meeting and provide relevant services immediately before and during the meeting to assist in handling technical problems of communication.

If a shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference, the chairperson shall, at the time of announcing the meeting, separately announce that, except for the circumstances specified in Paragraph 4, Article 44-20 of the Guidelines Governing the Handling of Stock Issuances by Public Companies that do not require the adjournment or continuation of the meeting, if, before the chairperson announces the adjournment of the meeting, an obstacle to participation on the video conference platform or by video message occurs due to a natural disaster, an event or other force majeure that lasts for more than 30 minutes, the date of the meeting shall be adjourned or renewed within five days, and the provisions of Article 182 of the Company Act shall not apply.

In the event of an adjournment or renewal of a meeting, shareholders who have not registered to participate in the original shareholders' meeting by video shall not participate in the adjourned or renewed meeting.

The number of shares, voting rights and voting rights exercised at the original shareholders' meeting shall be counted as the total number of shares, voting rights and voting rights of shareholders present at the adjourned or renewed meeting for those shareholders who have registered to attend the original shareholders' meeting by video and have completed reporting for the meeting, but have not attended the adjourned or reconvened meeting. When a shareholders' meeting is adjourned or reconvened in accordance with the second paragraph, there is no need to discuss and resolve again on the motions for which voting and vote counting have been completed and the voting results or the list of directors and supervisors elected have been announced.

When the Company holds a video-assisted shareholders' meeting and the second paragraph cannot be renewed, if the total number of shares present still reaches the legal quota for the shareholders' meeting after deducting the number of shares present by video, the shareholders' meeting shall continue without any adjournment or re-convening in accordance with the second paragraph.

In the event that a meeting shall be continued, the number of shares attended by shareholders participating in the meeting by way of video shall be counted as the total number of shares of shareholders present, but shall be deemed to be abstained for the purpose of all motions at that meeting.

If the Company adjourns or reconvenes a meeting in accordance with the second paragraph, the Company shall comply with the provisions set forth in Paragraph 7, Article 44-20 of the Guidelines Governing the Handling of Stock Issued to Public Companies, and shall complete the relevant preliminaries in accordance with the date of the original shareholders' meeting and the provisions of each such Article. When the Company holds a video shareholders' meeting, the Company shall provide appropriate alternative measures for shareholders who have difficulty attending the shareholders' meeting by video.

Article 20: Any matters not covered by these rules and regulations shall be governed by the Company Act and related laws and regulations and the Company's Articles of Incorporation. The Rules and any amendments thereafter shall become effective upon resolution at the shareholders' meeting.

The first amendment was made on June 8, 2022.
